JAMES BUSWELL, LICENSED AUCTIONEER BARTON, VERMONT. Will attend promptly to all calls and for reas-

TRASBURGH HOUSE. POUR MILES PROM CONN. & PASS. RIVER RAILROAD. L. F. EDGERTON, PROPRIETOR. Conveyance to and from the Station on arriva of all trains. Also a good Livery in connection with the House. 26 W. L. BARROWS, LICENSED AUCTIONEER, Will attend to all sales of Real Estate or Personal Property with promptitude. Charges low, CHARLES I. VAIL, Attorney, Bounty, and Claim Agent, IRASBURGH - - VERMONT.

WM. W. GROUT, ATTORNEY & COUNSELOR AT LAW And Claim Agent. VERMONT. Will attend the Courts in Orleans and Caledo-

O. B. RAMSEY, CARRIAGE PAINTING, - VERMONT.

Over Ufford's Carriage Shop. J. E. DWINELL,

GLOVER - VERMONT. DEASER IN All Madern Styles of Furniture, Carpets, Room Paper, Cloth Curmins, Fixtures, Tassels and Cord; also a good assertment of Coffins and Cas-

WM. JOSLYN & SONS. Anotheraries and Wholesale Druggists, - - VERMONT.

GRANDY, SKINNER & PARKER, DEALERS IN Groceries and General Hardware,

BARTON LANDING - - VT. Agent for Nalls, Plows, Stoves, &c, at whole-sale and cetath.

HARDWARE.

FRANK B. DAVIS & CO., | Successors to Shenherdson & Davis BRADFORD, VERMONT,

IRON. STEED. COAL. GLASSI

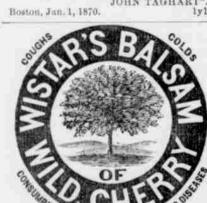

HARDWARE, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS

I PAuthorized Agents for the Sampson Scale

CONSTANTLY on hand, Blacksmith's Mate-rials of every description, Horse Shoes, Toe Corks, Horse Nails, Malable's, Nutts, Washers, AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS.

Late Agent of the United States Patent Office Washington, under the Act of 1837. No. 78 State St. opposite Kilby St. Boston.

is happy to announce to his friends and customers that he has returned to BARTON VILLAGE again, and opened business at the Old Shop, adjoining the Telegraph Office, and next door to Bowler's Marble Shop, where he is ready to make new HARNESSES, or repair old ones in his usual good style. His motto is ed shuttle-larger, nicer finished, runs stiller with cover, lock and key, S69. Same Machine with Button Hole Combination, S75. Also the celebrated Gold Medal, 100 of which are at work in this County, for S15. Folsom's qualite thread-ers, Grover & Baker seitch, same as Gold Medat.) with table, steel movements, fully licensed, $30. Folsom's single threaders, $18 to $25. All the above are the best of work and warranted.— Instruction free, successful working coarranteed.

On exhibition and for sale at 2 N. Webster's Daguerrean Rooms, Barton, Vt.
717 F. P. CHENEY, Glover, Vt.

Why at the

GROCERY Opposite

THE DRUG STORF Where you can get them by the STEW OR GALLON. All orders cut of town

A. & J. L. TWOMBLY

vancefrom cost FOR CASH They have also a good stock of most heart-rendin' incidents of that we defy competition. Call and buy a sample and see if we do not tell the truth.

We have also a large assortment of and Joiner's Tools of every description always

Call and get a barrel of blind them. When they thought they few days.

the party caught sight of one of their ive sexes. horses, a gray pony, known as "old show us our way to camp, out of this he will show us the way to our camp.' The horse as soon as he found him self free, threw his head and tail in had been put in him. Then he snuffed the breeze, and gave a loud snort, which seemed to say, "Come on, boys. The applier one and stores three Follow me. I'll lead you out of this and trotted along, but not so fast that the men could not follow him. They had not gone more than a mile when they saw the cheerful blaze of their camp fires. They all gave a loud huz-They felt grateful to God for their safety, and threw their arms around old Jack's neck to thank him for what I know that this is a true story, for on the occasion .- Little Nursery.

from below the roots of the grass and applied it to the wound, which at the time was as large as his hand and A Large Amount of Portland City Prop- caused the leg to be very much swollen. The result was that the swelling was reduced in the girth measurement three inches upon the first application. 100,000 Acres of Choice Farming Lands of The treatment was continued for three wound was quite healed.

What a Woman Did.

BY MRS. MARY A. DENNISON.

So old John Dent was gone, and left nothing. He had lived the life of a beggar. Left nothing, did I say? He had left a helpless Junior-John, When first you left my grief was uncontrollable Alone I mourned my miserable lot; boyhood, had been busily employed in trying to ruin himself, his intellect, his moral impulses, his naturally noble manhood. Junior John had just per-The next--oh! let me see-was Frankie Phipps; fected his genius in the use of a goldheaded walking stick, when his fa-He gave me his first kiss"—and here she sighed.
"We stayed six weeks at uncle's—how time flew!
I don't count that unfaithfulness. Do you? Lord Cecil Fossmote, only twenty-one, Lent me his horse, Oh, how we rode and raced. Do you know Reggy Vere? Ah, how he sings! it under his moustache smote other learn a trade. We met—'twas at a picnic. Ah, such weather!
He gave me—look, the first of these two rings,
When we were lost in Cliftien woods together.

Ah, what a kappy time we spent, we two!

IENCE. - When torn from my peeceful to be sacrified, and all to satisfy an. Tom, his great brown eyes full of a over. home to fite our friends of the South. gry and importunate creditors, so lovely light; and we hope this is to It was four in the afternoon. John I hed a wife wich I loved. Life wuz that not a single penny would be like- be a real country visit; not a mere had been hard at work, for his pupils a peeceful streeme, and we floatid by to fall into John Junior's pockets, call of a few weeks.' What would he do?

and I talked politics at a neighborin' grocery, investin' the proceeds of her heart more desolate than any of them. him, so glad, so hearty in their wel. ready for it. As the clock struck, ratin of families. When I returned him. He could never climb that hor. rious,' he said again. I wuz coldly met. Looizer Jane wuz at home. I askt her in my old famil- rid mountain of business, behind Well John, exclaimed his uncle,yar way for a dollar and a half, as I brainless women, champagne, cigars, for you, at any rate a beginning."

&c. What would they do for him now? He walked the empty rooms sank.

'Whew! whispered John, under his breath; who is she? Well, she little doctor exclaimed in a tone of the Reign of Terror. They amount ties to come circuitously and slowly "I hev." she replied, "and I propose to keep it. I hev diskivered suthin now? He walked the empty rooms sank. dozen, but add to that a hulkin man, with a nose like yoorz, and it's harder

Our set' intruded upon his privacy. His father was dead—they felt for 'I have sir,' said John. than I keer. This house is mine- him; he probably wished for solitude. If he did, he had it-the solitude of

The auction was over, and John

Lost on the Prairie.—Some years flashing eyes; and my father helped 'I accept a situation under a since, a party of surveyors had just him to make his fortune.'

western part of Illinois, when a vio- letter-a homelier than the others, his face.

they had to pass the night there in the bit me. They would only say 'Poor will, and I am anxious to see it principal? Did you find her glorier, was made for the mode of decapicold and snow, the chance was, that Jack! he was uncommonly good look- brought out. As for Miss Bessy, she ous, too? not one of them would be alive in the ing,' and they, 'It was deucedly mean is not quite old enough to be your 'More than that,' replied John, look-then, rising, he walked the floor, ex- you will excuse me.'

curse him.

my father was the chief of the party heard of your great bereavement, and At that moment he heard a rust-Some remarkable cures of obstinate did. The girls are all longing to see scampered off. dry earth have been related. An it hard of her sister's child, if in your blushing John. gentleman who, six years ago, received and you may imagine us all holding and ancient, made her appearance, day he actually got married. a kick from a horse below the knee out our hands, longing for a good John looked at her hands, which pre- Yes, to Bessie, the beautiful prinof the right leg. The wound was grasp of yours. It is my vacation sented the appearance of small carpet cipal of Hopsville Academy—not to healed partially, but after a time it now, and I want you. How soon may bags, in their square black mits, and take her from the duties which Provibroke out again and spread until the we expect you? Shall I drive to the then he looked at her face, and inwhole of the lower part of the leg was depot at six on Thursday, or come to wardly groaned. affected. Having heard of the success the city to keep you company? Write of the earth treatment in other cases, me directly. I shall harness Black he procured some virgin soil taken Bess on Thursday at five p. m. Don't of a carpenter's rule. disappoint us. Your loving cousin,

Tom. was here,' groaned John, with a ter- Department B. This way, sir.' rible twinge of conscience. Good 'Pleasant,' thought John, his spirits heavens! I wonder he did not knock falling below zcro; If I wait for her me down. Well at all events, that to make a match, the preceptorship invitation is real; I knew it by- by of Hopsville Academy is beyond my weeks, at the end of which time the -my feeling so like a confounded ba- lifetime.'

will pay for something, and make me | buzz followed his entrance; blue eyes feel respectable. For the rest-I'm and black were busy on their books. in mourning; I'll give the boys these | 'That ancient preceptress must be light clothes; tell them I can't wear a splendid disciplinarian,' thought 'em, and-it will seem something like John.

of a millionnaire; he died the death ly present. Egad! how much I've John formed friendships—distant old as history. In Cranach's woodgiven our fellows, and now they don't ones. know me. Pretty friendship! These Does your principal never come in a creature of twenty, who, since his cigars I'll keep; they don't like 'em this department?' asked John of one there, so I'll go out in the fields and of these. have a smoke by myself. This gold- 'Oh, ycs; but she's been away, you Then I must find something to do.' ther died. He carried it between reer of dissipating pleasure; how it you could only hear her lecture! She the thumb and finger of his faultless eats out the muscle and nerve of a can do anything; she can preach, up-the right hand knee of his pantaloons like, 'Will Wimble,' he had almost laugh.' was exquisite. The way he dangled rather starve like a gentleman than John pressed his lips together, as dandies with envy, and his use of it At six on Thursday, according to is thy capacity.'

broad-shouldered fellow, who lifted he asked faintly. The plain gold circlet that is shining here?"

I took her hand: "Oh, Mary! Can it he
That you"—Quoth she, "That I am Mrs. Vere. I don't count that unfaithfulness. Do you?"

Poor John Junior! What would he his trunk as if it were only an averaged sized carpet-bag, and whose strong, hearty welcome grasp, almost lieves in all sorts of rights, and every-Poor John Junior! What would he his trunk as if it were only an aver- I presume so, or you wouldn't be did house to be sold, the splendid took the city-bred young man off his thing that is right finds an advocate touch of the curious mob, the fat horses They're all expecting you, said Bravo! cried John. 'Recess i

> He walked the desolate rooms, his rious!' as the cousins crowded about one question too many, and he not be To be sure, he had not cared very come-as his hands were taken in a there was a flutter through the room; much for the old man. To him he motherly grasp by the sweet-faced all eyes turned to the door. Thenhad been very like a plethoric pocket. aunt, whose heart yearned toward her was it an angel that entered? John book, from which he could draw bank. dead sister's boy. As he sat down mentally asked, looking dazed, as the received its appellation from a simple notes at will. As to loving him to the table, not covered with silver white draped figure, with floating minded, good natured physician.

> which he entrenched himself. So the he had been there a month—I've been moving toward him, she bowed, and not appear upon a Committee of the Junior took to loving horses, and fast thinking about what you told me, and with a self poised, womanly air, she Convention. In fact, before a single young men, and billiard saloons, and I believe there's a first rate chance took her stand at the board, while the head fell, he had dropped into obscu-since yoove bin gone. I hev found alone, he read the mocking labels on Yes, a first rate chance; von've that its easy enuff to support myself empty bottles, he felt in his pockets. got a pretty good education, nephew. and the children washin at a dollar a Not one of 'the splendid fellows of have been through college and all teacher.' 'A teacher sir? I a teacher? Dent, Jr., had no home. One or two spectable position, and a stepping problems lost their stateliness, and I left her. A feendish ablishnist relatives gave him a cold invitation stone, you know, to something better. hed put this idea into hur hed, and to call and see them.' One great Many of our best lawyers, doctors, di in the presence of conqueror, confessshe hed actid on it. Since that time uncle and rich, by-the-by, sent word vines, commenced in that way, he ad-I hev wended my way alone, subsist- that he could accommodate him for a ded, pretending not to notice John's House Trimmings, Paints and Oils. A large the licker I ought to hev had out ov thing to do. John's handsome eyes an institution over in Hopsville, not few men who could match her. what that woman hes urned sence flashed, as he tore the scented billet five miles from here, carried on by that cruel day. O what a fearful debt into infinitesimal fragments, and Miss Bessie Marvin-a woman of one of the girls, as the queen of beau-> man-a spinster principal!" exclaim-Not long after this there came a ed John, his consternation visible in lent snow-storm came on. They start- directed in a neat, business hand. It I take it there are some women R . ed for their camp, which was in a found the poor young man in mean could teach you more than you could grove of about eighty acres, in a large lodgings—a meager little room, in learn, nephew John, said the old man the girl laughing. Poor Miss Marprairie, nearly twenty miles from any the upper story of a second-rate, with a twinkle in his eye. 'Now you genteel house. On the strength of know that you are as welcome as flow- sees to things; but Miss Bessie, we his gold-headed cane and handsome ers in May-that this house is your that, I trust, to require a repetition probable depth. 'At any rate,' he son, I should beg of you to accept this No, sir,' replied John, 'it's-it's a > mother, nor perhaps so much averse ing humble on the instant. It is probable that the two 'they's' to matrimony that she would decline

John's eyes brightened a little at now-in fact, she's a fortune in hersight of the large, round superscript. self. I don't wish you to go wife expected, eh?" ion on the envelope. He seized it, bunting, but I do want you to learn he had found a treasure. It was a things being equal, combines with toil ew. strange thing for a reduced gentleman the rarest pleasures and most accept. 'Well, yes, I rather flatter myself to do; but when he had persued it, he able privileges. Shall I write to Miss should, I comprehended your good handkerchief in his coat pocket, and sie, uncle, said John, with bitterness rested his elbows on the table, and till something better offers-and, as I thing of. I fancied you possessed covered his face with his hands. For must apply myself for a time in brushsome moments he sat in that position; ing up some of my knowledge, I beg ecutive ability, that you yourself know his father is a glorious fellow. His with a great sneer, when his trunk whole family must be glorious fellows, was set down at the door of a handthough half of them are girls, I be- some building. 'Well, here I am,' he lieve. I'll go. That's no half-way added, as he was shown into the cool, invitation; that's no coldly formal elegant parlor. 'I'll teach the young And shaking his hand with the hearty apology; that's right down welcome idea how to shoot with a vengeance, by Jove! Heaven be thanked! I can't and when I've earned money enough to pay my way back to the city, I'll with you. Father tells me to say 'Oh, isn't he handsome!' and then that your room stands just where it a bevy of girls with fluttering ribbons, wounds by the simple application of you. Mother declares she shall take Not a bad beginning, thought the Australian paper reports that of a affliction, you do not come to her; Presently a stately lady, tall, thin ing brighter and brighter, and one

'Miss Marvin,' he said taintly.

sir?' she asked. 'You are expected: 'And how I snubbed him when he to-morrow you will take charge of old times, when I could make a prince. The duties passed off pleasantly .-

headed cane-I'll leave that with my know. She will come this afternoon. landlady in pledge till I come back. Have you seen her? Isn't she just lovely? We girls all worship her; Alas! a life of mere fashion; a ca- there never was such a woman. If kids, in a way that struck the fools of man's energy! John Dent dreaded on my word she can. On rainy days We scoured the downs, we rode to hounds-such both sexes with speechless admiration. work, because it was something that she takes a text, and does much bet-The genteel tap of his taper point on would tax his dormant energy, and, ter than Dr. Fossil. Oh, you needn't days of Scotch annals—the young he cried sotto voce, 'Oh youth, great as a walking stick was simply high appointment, John was met by a Does she believe in man's rights?

in her.'

kept him up to the mark, and he was John said in his heart-this is glo. only fearful that they might ask him he had never seen him fifteen min- certainly, but bounded by honest, lov. curls and liquid brown eyes, came in. did not fabricate the implement. Anutes at a time in all his life; he could ing hearts and smiles and gentle Her rosy lips parted in so sweet a other person was its inventor. For not in fact, get near enough to love words,—'Yes, this was certainly glo. smile, that it made her quite enchant- its adoption he was in no way responing. She started as she met the grave, sible. The various modes prepared astonished face of John Dent; then he never examined. His name does pupils were all attention.

> those beautiful eves alight with the fire of genius, her white arm raised, gracefully away from it. What power there was in every movement of 'Very responsible and a very re- the wand she held? The difficult seemed to fall humbly before her, as

> > 'And she a woman,' thought John.

Well, that's our principal,' ground them into the floor with his splendid attainments, a wonder, a ty and of science left the room, takprodigy. She is in want of a teacher, ing more than her smiles and sunhine with her; 'that's Miss Bessie! isn't she beautiful?' 'That-that-' stuttered John, 'oh no, you must be mistaken. I-I saw Bessie-that is, Miss Marvin, when I Oh, dear, no, that's her aunt,' cried vin-that's a good joke-she only

'You did not consider her quite old

'Uncle,'-his cheeks crimsoned qualities, you see, from the first. A not of. I saw, also, that you needed found; now go to work.'

'Uncle Tom,' cried John, with ergy, 'how can I thank vou?'

That night John wrote a letter to Up he went, steadily-his fame grow-and bless her by his energy and love; to toil with her as his equal-peerless The lady bowed with the precision among all bright and beautiful women It could not be said now that old John Shall I show you to your room, Dent was dead, and had left nothing. He had left a man-a noble man, whose upright character and shining talents were to reflect lustre on his name that would never grow dim.

History of the Guillotine.

Traupmann has just been beheaded n Paris. Death by decollation is as cuts of the "Martyrdom of the Apostles," printed in Wittenberg in 1539, there is an exhibition of the death of St. Matthew by the axe. In a still older German print, given by Croker in his "Account of Capital Punishments." Titus Manlius is represented Executions on the block at Tower Hill are familiar to every reader of instrument for decapitation, performed its sanguinary service in the stormy Earl of Argyle quaintly enough declaring at his execution in 1665, as he pressed his lips on the block: "It

In England and Scotland it seems to have been persons of rank who onfor the vulgar. In Italy, from time immemorial, it was, on the contrary, the universal method to take off the heads of criminals. In France both methods obtained. In 1832, on the very day that Marshal de Montmoren-The same distinction obtained in Spain. Portugal, and parts of Southern Germany. To die by the gallows was ignoble,-by the axe, honorable.

terrible nature of mankind which, un- stung by an epigram!

infliction of unnecessary suffering. toration,-and died in Paris, on the and not of the outlay for dress, works After protracted discussions, the 26th of May, 1814, at the age of 76. of art, books, &c., for which a man new penal code was adopted by the Among the phenomena of the guil. can spend any amount that can be Constituent Assembly in 1791. It is lotine, mentioned by Dauban is that named. For these proper expenses, a phenomenon which neither psychol. of the indifference to death which the that at that time Robespierre opposed produced. Adam Lux was glad to the shedding of blood in any case or put his head under the axe which had under any pretext. One of the arti- touched the neck of Charlotte Corday. mere deprivation of life without pre. chanting their praises, to his death. vious torture." No provision, hower- Even Philip Egalite begged of the tion from a banker, of one small Ameristrates should inquire in what man- your friend yesterday, of your confiner the execution was to be done. dential servant this morning, of your readers will be very much of my way "By beheading," replied the Minister. foe to-night, and might perhaps re. of thinking, and desire to travel in a Not such a terrible female as you "There are three ways of decapita- ceive that of yourself to morrow, be- quiet, unostentatious way, and have tion," responded the magistrates came an object of attraction almost all essential comforts and refinements "the axe, the sword, and the machine. irresistible. In the crowd that hurltore it open, and read eagerly, as if that a life of honorable labor, other mat, Uncle Tom, responded his nephus to resort?" "Ask Samson, the he- to the place of execution, mingled THE GREATEST MEN .- Beecher sava: reditary executioner!" returned the among the canaille, were men of sci -Aaron Burr was a keener thinker minister. Samson was appealed to, ence, scholars, and gentlemen of leis- than George Washington. He was and in a document, not the least curi. ure. At the guillotine they forced a far more ingenious man, a far more little spoiled, or a good deal, may be, ous MS. still preserved in the archives their way to the front of the barriers. active man; and if he had been a morbut thanks to a gracious Providence, of the Bibliotheque Royale, replied Not a word or motion of the victim, al man, and had maintained normal enough man in you to make some- that, "while ready to obey, he could not a pang or struggle, were they wil- relations with himself, with his fellow not make the law. In case the sword ling to lose. Who knew?-they men, and with the laws of rectitude. some noble traits of character, and ex- were used there was danger of acci- themselves might be the next to fol- he would have been an abler man .dents, unless the executioner was ex- low, and in their unbelief in a future Washington was a man of good sense. pert and the criminal firm; that swords state of existence they were prepar- but he was not a man of genius in any some motive of sufficient power to were often broken in the process; that ing their minds for the worst of this. direction except that of conscience. Tom Dent is a glorious fellow! Hopsville Academy, read John push you ahead—to raise you to your the same sword, being invariably M. Bertin, who was no admirer of He was a man of singular equity, of true level. That I think you have notched by the hardness of the cervic. Madame Roland, speaks of her intre- great disinterestedness, and of pure al bones, would not answer twice pidity at the scaffold. He witnessed and upright intent. Sagacious he was, without sharpening; that in case of the execution of 407 persons, 119 of by the light which comes from integtwo or more criminals, the second and whom were women. There is a sug- rity. He endured, having faith to bethird became unmanageable from gestive statement among his bald re- lieve that right was right, that right > on to the city. Months passed—John A committee was appointed. Experts from the headless trunk, after the not any intellectual genius which he Dent was winning a name; a year— were examined. Surgeons gave their blow, only a few drops of blood fell. possessed; not any rare tact in admin-John Dent was winning a case. No testimony. Men of science were invinamby pam byism about him now; no ted to make suggestions. Inventors to the heart. From that of Madame tive power. And if you look back presented models of machines. Fre. Roland, on the contrary, two jets upon those names in our history that kid-gloved hand; John had found his quent and extended discussions took sprang, as if she died in the exaltation have best stood the test, you will find lost manhood—he was earning a home. place, during which every humane suggestion produced its impression. The design of the committee was clearly to save the criminal unnecessary suf-

In single executions the machine work- miles an hour. The leader, which is ed. But on the 14th of July it failed. always a well broken dog, is placed Five criminals were to be taken off. ahead of the pack, with a draught The heads of four had fallen. But line of from six to ten fathoms in when the fifth had been strapped to length, and the rest with successively ped. The grooves of wood had swol- not coupled, however, as they are usued, threw the weight of his body up- attached each loose from all others. on the back of the axe and called up- so that when they are in motion, travon his assistant for help. It was a eling, they appear like a flock of partwretched massacre, too brutal for ridges, all flying loosely, and yet all narration, outdone in cruelty only by the same course. They always travel the hideous brutality of more than in a gallop, no matter what the state is the sweetest maiden I ever have one public execution in our own country this very past year. Public indig- hill is most difficult and dangerous, and nation was aroused. The execution at times it is necessary for the rider ment was never tried again. Metal stuck into the snow. When the sledge execution of the Queen, nor when at toes from behind, as he descends head and broken boxes, which Samson them by his own judgment. Cases rity; and yet, because in a speech be- recalls no pleasant memories. The themselves, make directly for their the Reign of Terror. They amount ties to come circuitously and slowly strike off your head in the twinkling to 2,026. Abbe Montgaillard pro. towards each other and give the sepawits of Paris gave the name of guil- bers 4,110. But he includes the "fu- ing that their masters are acquainted. silladed" and "nogaded" as well .- or otherwise, a fight might ensue be-'I have sir,' said John.

'And you would make a pretty fair the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which, not until the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which, not until three years alterwards, had an activate which and "nogaded" as well.—

Or otherwise, a nght might ensue to an instrument which, not until three years alterwards, had an activate which are the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which are the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which are the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which which are the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which which which which which which will be a sum of the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which which which which which will be a sum of the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which will be a sum of the cloud of delicate muslin falling til three years alterwards, had an activate which will be a sum of the cloud of the clou human lives. But it is not the two We lift up our hands with horror at hundredth part of those who perished the mention of the guillotine. The in the seven years' war to soothe the Days of Terror come back. That Pompadour, whose vanity had been nfamy of the guillotine consisted in pecting daily his name to be called. constant working of the guillotine

Girev Dupre, the advocate of the Gi roydists, who, before the tribunal, had those of Aristides or Sydney, went, sess all brains. The panier of the guillotine which received the head of

Up to this time the idea of employing a machine in criminal executions party for the first fortnight had good shine upon history and the world. luck and rare sport; then one of them was taken with dipther.a, and being In constructing a new street in Parfifty miles from any medical assistis, a cemetery used in the days of the ance, died within a few hours. With- first revolution has been uncovered. in three days, three more perished of Among other remains was found a rethe same disease, and the remaining markably beautiful head of a woman, one was seized with it. He lay in a in a wonderful state of preservation. stupor so long that when he recover. The fair hair still adhering to the ed the horses had died of famine, and skull bears the coiffure in fashion in the wolves had partly devoured the 1793-94, with twisted and powdered corpses of his companions, which had tresses. There is no doubt that the been buried in the snow outside the head belongs to one of the revolution camp for preservation. After untold ary tribunal, but it is a singular cirsuffering he reached an Indian camp, cumstance that the eyes a e covered and later came to the abodes of white with a black frontlet. As no mention tual statistics, that the people of Ver- scaffold, this discovery has given rise nessed with a leather collar, belly and olution, like Saturn, devoured its own quainted with the courses and places children, did the guillotine fail of its in the neighborhood that they never purpose. It became a proverb during fail to take their master and his sledge that carnival of blood, La guillotine to the house where he wishes them to go, even should a severe snow storm If a visitor in Paris cares to take come on while they are on the journey; the trouble, he may see in a shed, back and it is always safer for the rider at of the Rue de la Paix, the very guil. such times to trust to the instincts of lotine, surrounded by empty barrels the dogs, than to attempt to guide worked and the blue blood of France have occurred where men have done consecrated. It is an ugly monster, this, and paid the penalty by freezing and, like the window of Charles I. at to death in a desolate wilderness. In Whitehall, or the block in the Tower, such cases the faithful dogs, if lett to nounces it incomplete. His list num- rate packs the opportunity of observ-

COST OF FOREIGN TRAVEL-We timate of the expense of travel in Eu-pected to travel and live in Europe. and on thinking the prospect over, I to be enough. I am speaking, of course, I found my estimate too high, and that six dollars a day in gold will cover the whole amount of this expenditure for two hundred and fourteen days of absence. Some persons spend less, and some spend more. A young man told me that by walking much pronounced their virtues to surpass and going to cheap hotels, he got along for two or three dollars a day and I have very trustworthy informajudges not to delay his execution till ican family, that spent at the rate of evening. One idea seemed to pos- over two thousand dollars a day, although I think that this sum must include all the expenses of dress, curi osities, jewels, &c. Probably most without dash or extravagance.' fright and a struggle ensued; and that cords worth translating. "Fear," he was safe, and that right in the end in order to fulfil the humane intention says, "predominated among the con- would prevail. That which made of the law, it was necessary the victim demned. Their faces were pale .- Washington the only great hero of should be fixed." The Minister then Shivering almost always occurred .- our revolutionary struggle, was the that they have been men who were A story comes from Bangor of the And as time goes on, those men who death, in the Maine wilderness, of lack these elements sink lower and four out of five persons, with their two lower till they set below the horizon: horses, who were on a hunting and and those men who possess them rise fishing excursion. The sole survivor, higher and higher, till they reach the who is a Frenchman, says that the meridian, with undying splendor to is made in the chronicles of the time of any one among those executed be-

----AND----CASH DOWN FOR WORK.

Barton, Nov. 8, 1869.

OYSTERS! OYSTERS! WHERE?

PROMPTLY ATTENDED TO. GEO. C. DAVIS

FLOUR! FLOUR!

Have just received a large assortment of the best

Family Flour, which can be had at a small ad-

And all who saw me thought me inconsolable, Till Captain Clifford came from Aldershott; To firt with him amused me while 'twas new : I met him at my uncle's Christmas-tide; And 'neath the mistletoe, where lips meet lips,

TEAS wantid to go down the street. the very best the market affords. In this branch

BELTING

CARPENTERS you can find tools of every

R. H. EDDY, SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

TESTIMONIALS "I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable end official intercourse.
CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents." "I have no hesitation in assuring inventors and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me THIR. atents have been granted, and that one is no

and at very reasonable charges

RETURNED.

NEATNESS, PROMPTITUDE.

THE NEW AMERICAN SEWING MACHINE IS every description for sale, situated in different parts of this State.

FARM FOR SALE.

But for the three years past I'll tell you what I've done: then say if I've been true or not.

Also a good stock of calmly along. She took in washin',

A splendid lotof

A small lot of Domestic Dry Goods on hand, finished their day's work in the north-

Lors onerry Pectoral For Diseases of the Thront and Lungs, such as Cougha, O.Ids, Whooping

For sale by WM. JOSLYN & SONS, Barton

STITZEL & UPTON. REAL ESTATE BROKERS General Land Agency for Oregon and Washington Territory.

Will attend to the purchase and sale of Real Estate in all parts of this State and Washington Territory.

crty for Sale.

ESTABLISHED JULY, 1868.

Any communications addressed to us inquiring about the Resources of Oregon, Price of Land, &c., will receive immediate attention. Best of references can be given. Address
STITZEL & UPTON,
50 Letter Box H, Portland, Oregon.

I'd been away from her three years-about that-And I returned to find my Mary true; And though I'd question her, I did not doubt that Twas by the chimney corner we were sitting: "Mary," said I, "have you been always true!"
Frankly, "says she-just pausing in her knitting"I don't think I've unfaithful been to you;

The Faithful Lovers.

I don't count that unfaithfulness. Do you?

And oft was his arm about my waist-

That was to lift me up or down. But who Would count that unfaithfulness. Do you?

No," I replied, "for I am married too."

"That's played!" she remarkt.

"Hevn't you got it?" I askt.

It was unnecessary so to do.

furniture to be desecrated by the feet.

And she calmly rung out a shirt ez | the moneyless.

'The old scoundrel!' he cried with and I can get you the place.'

and the snow drifting so as to nearly trunk, the landlady trusted him for a home; you are too well assured of had nearly reached their camp, they The letter lay on his table when of the fact. But, John, all my boys all at once came upon tracks in the he came in from a miserable recrea- and girls work; they are proud of one pleasant winter day; going to cles in the code provided that "every snow. These they looked at with tion. He had been down to the river, their independence, and not ashamed give up teaching. I suppose! found it care, and found, to their dismay, that speculating upon its coldness and of honest labor. If you were my own a great bore, ch? It was now plain that they were had soliloquized, I should not make a situation, until you can find another, glorious occupation. lost on the great prairie, and that, if bad looking-corpse—unless the fishes There is good in you, talent, if you 'Oh, it is; and how is the spinster of him to kill himself. fear and with cold, the chief man of meant, not the fishes, but the respect- an offer of marriage, of the right sort. enough to be your mother?" let it drop softly from his hand, his Bessie?" lip quivered—he felt blindly for a 'By all means, write to Miss Besdeliberately wiping his eyes with it, in his voice. 'As you say, it will do,

DEAR COUSIN JOHN :- We have leave.' cannot tell how much we sympathize ling and a whisper:

You would make a splendid diplo-grasp of a bard-fisted farmer, the old man left the room. shoot off to the cars and take French Bessie Marvin; the next day he went referred the subject to the Assembly. The eyelids were painfully open; and light of the moral element in him—referred the subject to the Assembly.

I will sell my farm, situated about half way between Barton and Glover villages, consisting of 185 acres of best quality of land, has water running to house and both barns, buildings good. Satisfactory pay day given. Will sell hay, grain and stock, if wanted. W. F. NILES.

Barton, Dec. 25, 1869.

West.

West.

West.

West.

West.

West.

So saying John went to the trunk of the we were first jined of the went we were first jined to department, little of the wind department, little of the way between Barton and Glover villages, consistency pay of 185 acres of best quality of land, has the people of the west.

So saying John went to the trunk of the west first jined department, little of the work they say it's good for the brain."—

Be careful how you fulfil.

West.

So saying John went to the trunk of the work of the work they say it's good for the brain."—

The people of the west.

So saying John went to the trunk of the work they was turnspling the bloody monsters to department, little of the metropolis and department, little of the metropolis and department.

Be careful how you fulfil.

West.

So saying John went to the trunk of the work they work they say it's good for the brain."—

The people of the west.

Whiss Bessie has good taste, in spite to department, little of the metropolis and department, little of the metropolis and department.

Be careful how you fulfil.

West.

So saying John went to the trunk of the work the we use ter when we were first jined at they look, I've jined a temperance society of observation. The girls were wait in the point of observation. The girls were wait in the point of the work they say it's good for the brain."—

Be careful how you fulfil.

Was furnishing the bloody monsters to department, little of the metropolis and department.

Be careful how you fulfil.

West.

So saying John went to the trunk of the went of the we use ter when we use the went we use the went of the pool to the to much speculation and conjecture.

The people of the metropolis and ferules.

The properties

BY N. S. DODGE.

as suffering death in the same manner. the bed and swung under the axe, the shorter ones, until they come within English history. The "Maiden," an len from the blood. Samson, alarm- ally represented in engravings, but are y died by the axe. The gibbet was ci was beheaded, seven burglars and Louis ascended to heaven," nor at the on the sledge, and guides it with his

The grim decapitator, whose name the French Revolution made famous, Whew! whispered John, under fore the Tiers Etat the pertinaceous triumph, "Now, with my machine. I strange emotions as she stood there- of an eye, and you never feel it," the restrained by Divine Grace, goes down It has frequently been stated that rope. The following statement by to madness and the pit, confronts us. Guillotin died by the instrument to Rev. Dr. Osgood, in one of his inter-The panic frenzy of 25,000,000 people which he gave name. A recent re- esting letters to the Evening Post, coin by chance. Ablishinism owes me week or two until he could get some look of consternation. Now there's drawing his breath hard; there are rending asunder the habitudes of life, viewer in the Westminster Quarterly incides with our own experience. He it is not pleasant to recall. But it is falls into the same error. It was not not wise to forget that the bloodthirsty so. He was, indeed, arrested during implement of the French Revolution | the Triumvirate, and for many months was at first proposed on the combined suffered the torture common to the principle of justice and mercy. The wretched crowd of prisoners, of exits ability to dispose of the greatest not as a "suspect," for his record as number of victims in the shortest a sansculotte was clear, but as sustime: its purpose was to make capital | pected of being "suspect." He escapunishment instantaneous, without the ped, however,-lived to see the Res- now of the proper expenses of travel, > ogists nor theologians have explained. person condemned to death should be beheaded;" another, that "the punishment by death should consist in the tation. It was natural, therefore, when the first criminal was condemned and sentenced to death, that the mag had evidently found no favor. Guillotin's proposition had been smothered by ridicule. He himself had retired into obscurity. It was the urgent application of the Minister of Justice that brought the matter to a crisis .-M. Louis drew up a report, which was adopted by the committee and presented to the Assembly. The legislature decreed that decapitation "by invariable mechanism should be adopted The following letter comes to the throughout the kingdom. Among the surface in a Texas paper: "Galveston, numerous models of machines before by; and up went the handkerchief 'I wonder who arranges things here, January the 7th, 1870. My Lovin them the members of the committee again. 'I'll go for a couple of weeks. he added, as he was left alone; 'ros- Wyfe- Ime comin ome nex week an selected that of Schmidt, a pianaforte Iowa plants every year a forest of I don't want to sponge on anybody, es, lilies-and not in pitchers either, hav forgiv you for jawin me. I'll come manufacturer. He alone was its in-5,000,000 trees. Within considera- but what can I do? I wonder if but regular vases; while dimity, lace on the 7 o'clock trane and shall stay ventor; to him the contract for buildbly less than half a dozen years, 25, Providence always provides for the curtains, straw carpet, a whole look- ome herearter & tri to be a altered ing was given; and by some unac- people. 000,000 forest trees have been plant- lame and the lazy? I believe I'm ing-glass-everything as pure as man. I want peece and so do yew; countable perversity of the Parisian ed, and are now growing in the North- both-at least morally, if not physic snow, and delicate as frost-work. - why shoodn't we love each uther, as mind, while the German-Jew mechanic Miss Bessie has good taste, in spite we use ter when we were first jined of vinegar and ferules. was furnishing the bloody monsters together in the wholly bands of madfor metropolis and department, little mont—a State almost exclusively de-rv existence a subject of fearful curi- | Esquimaux Dogs .- They are har-Experiments of the working of the back bands, through the upper part of guillotine were made first upon "sub- which the line of seal skin passes jects" in the dissecting rooms. Be- which is attached to the sledge, and ing found successful, the first victim it serves the double purpose of a rein was Pelletier, whose case bad led to and trace to draw with. * all the proceedings we have described. Each dog is estimated to carry two He was a robber and murderer, and hundred pounds, and to travel with deserved his fate. Others followed. that load at the rate of five or six uplifted iron creaked, moved and stop- eight feet of the sledge. They are er barely escaped assassination on the to guide the sledge with his feet, as spot. It was a narrow chance for the boys their sleds sliding down hills, guillotine as well. The same instru- and sometimes it is done by long poles grooves were substituted, and never is heavily laden and the descent steep. afterwards, not on the tenth of Au- the dogs are often taken off, and the gust, with its holocaust of innocent vehicle made to slide down the precivictims, nor when "the son of St. pice by the man alone, who lies flat the murder of the Girondists, the Rev- foremost. The dogs are so well ac-

It is stated on high authority, of ac- ing blindfolded before mounting the